Mother's Day
May 8, 2011

I believe in the love of all mothers, and its importance in the lives of the children they bear.

It is stronger than steel, softer than down and more resilient than a green sapling on a hillside.

It closes wounds, melts disappointments, and enables the weakest child to stand tall and straight in the fields of adversity.

I believe that this love, even at its best is only a shadow of the love of God..

I believe that one of the most beautiful sights in the world is a mother who lets this greater love flow through her to her child, blessing the world with the tenderness

of her touch and the tears of her joy.

Strength and honour are her clothing;

And she shall rejoice in time to come.

Proverbs 31:25

I have wept in the night for the shortness of sight that to somebody's need made me blind;
but I never have felt
a twinge of regret
for being a little too kind.
